FAQs

How long does it take? Wedding day services take on average forty-five minutes per service per person. For example, a bridesmaid getting both her hair and makeup done will take about an hour and a half. I like to allow longer for the bride - since she's the star of the day – about an hour and a half to two hours, depending on the complexity of the look. If you have a large party, I'll generally bring along an assistant to shorten the time and keep things running smoothly.

What kind of products do you use? I use a variety of products that are animal and skin-friendly and contain mineral-based hypoallergenic ingredients. I have very sensitive skin and test every product on myself before I use it on my clients.

Do you do airbrushing? I'm a painter, so I prefer to do everything by hand. Airbrush makeup tends to sit on top of the skin whereas my techniques allow the products to connect with your skin, looking much more natural and lasting much longer.

Policies

Booking requires a non-refundable deposit of 50% of the total services (or no less than $100), and the remaining balance is due two weeks before the wedding. Pricing is subject to change until deposit is received.

Distances outside of our service area require an additional fee of $75 per hour of driving time per artist.

Please note that the bride is responsible for parking fees for each artist at venues which do not have complimentary parking readily available.

I accept cash, Venmo, PayPal, and checks, which should be made out to Tiffany Stone.

Hair styles or textures which require very detailed work and therefore more time may add an extra charge. Please inquire for details.

I will make out a schedule for wedding day services. Please note that this schedule is contingent on having someone in the makeup/hair chairs at all times. If there is lag time in between attendants or attendants run late, this makes it very difficult to stay on schedule.

How to Prepare for Your Session

Please arrive with clean, moisturized skin free of all traces of makeup, and if we'll be doing hairstyling, please come with clean, DRY hair - you know your hair best, so decide what clean means for you. Feel free to use any products that you regularly use, like frizz serums, etc. It's also a great idea to exfoliate your skin to create a smooth canvas on which we can work.

For a bridal consultation, have available if possible (or email to me ahead of time):

- > a picture of the makeup look and hairstyle.
- > a picture of your dress/hairstyle/bridesmaids dresses to give me an idea of the look of the day.
- > a picture of yourself in which you love the way you look.
- > any products which you would like for me to use on the wedding day.
